

How will the school let me know if they have any concerns about my child's learning in school?

The teacher will keep you fully involved in discussions about the planning for your child's learning. This may be through:

Discussions before/after school

Parents' evenings, when progress is reviewed formally

Formal meetings