

What happens to children who do not have an EHCP?

Children without an EHCP must be educated in a mainstream nursery, school or college. Schools, colleges and nurseries have specific funding to support children and young people with SEN.